Outcome details

This outcome was reached by SRA decision.

Decision details

Who does this decision relate to?

Andrew Tilbury whose last known address was in Hornchurch, London. A person who is or was involved in a legal practice but is not a solicitor.

The SRA has put restrictions on where and how Mr Tilbury can work in an SRA regulated firm. It was found that: Mr Tilbury, who is not a solicitor, was involved in a legal practice and has occasioned or been a party to an act or default which involved such conduct on his part that it is undesirable for him to be involved in a legal practice in any of the ways described in the order below.

Reasons/basis

Mr Tilbury was employed by Linklaters Business Services ('LBS'), the service and employing company for Linklaters LLP, the recognised body for the purposes of providing legal services, as a Team Leader between January 2007 to 6 April 2022. Between 1 August 2021 and 30 January 2022, Mr Tilbury claimed overtime from his employer for hours not worked on multiple occasions. Mr Tilbury's conduct was dishonest.

Other information

Decision on outcome:

An order pursuant to section 43(2) of the Solicitors Act 1974 was imposed as Mr Tilbury's conduct meant that it was undesirable for him to be involved in a legal practice without the SRA's prior approval. The order pursuant to section 43 was made with effect from the date of the letter or email notifying Mr Tilbury of this decision. Mr Tilbury was also ordered to pay a proportion of the SRA's costs of £600.

What our Section 43 order means:

- i. no solicitor shall employ or remunerate him in connection with his/her practice as a solicitor;
- ii. no employee of a solicitor shall employ or remunerate him in connection with the solicitor's practice;
- iii. no recognised body shall employ or remunerate him;
- iv. no manager or employee of a recognised body shall employ or remunerate him in connection with the business of that body;
- v. no recognised body or manager or employee of such a body shall permit him to be a manager of the body; and
- vi. no recognised body or manager or employee of such a body shall permit him to have an interest in the body except in accordance with the SRA's prior written permission
